THE MESSAGE

In this age of turbulence and uncertainty, with its ever-changing panorama of hope and despair which seems to bind together "the bundle of the living", Christians throughout the world unite on Christmas Day to witness their belief in that unique event which took place in the life of Christ...

Everyone knows that Our Lord lived on earth as a Palestinian Jew, and that His ministry was exercised in a land where the extremes of political and religious outlook flourished...

In character the Jews and Gentiles are respected, and they alone, in their opinion, were faithful to the religious laws and covenant relationship between the nation and its God.

Christians declare, God became incarnate in the person of His Son, who was at home, and the character of whose people He so well understood.

Consent of delegates of the Chinese People's Government. This, in plain words, means that the Peking Government has rejected the "cease-fire" resolution...

British Government will be willing to see the Peking Government in the Security Council right from the start...
